The Maryland Conservatives Working for Grant.

Chinese to Dredge Lower California.

New Policy Toward Mexico.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 18, 1863.

The President Displeased.

The President is represented as being exceedingly displeased at the reports made according his conversations with those gentlemen from New York who have been trying to reconcile him to the Seymour ticket. The very slight allusion in Democratic papers to the final promises to support their ticket has aroused him to such a degree that prominent Democrats here assert that they would not be surprised at a positive break on his part with the Democrats. One of the latter class most intimate with Mr. Johnson, and one of his warm defenders, asserted to-day the President was not inclined to do the Democrats any good and could not be bounded on for any party and action.

The Maryland Conservatives.

Although Governor Swann has kept himself aloof from the movement of the Maryland conservatives toward Grant, Democrats have begun to oppose him politely for Congress, asserting that if elected he would give no active influence in favor of Grant. Governor Bradford is now engaged in preparing an address to the conservatives of the county, inviting them to join the Maryland committee in supporting Grant and Colfax.

Chinese Labor in Lower California.

The fact has been alluded to that the troubles with Buchingham, while on the Pacific coast, made a special agreement to send over quite a large number of Chinese to aid in working the mines of Lower California and dredging the country. The matter was formally considered in Washington by the representatives of a Lower California company, which has lately come into possession of various colonial grants by the whole of that peninsula, and the conference entered into an official agreement to send a large company from China to settle on the lands of that organization.

Official Inquiry.

Official inquiry has been made in several quarters to-day, to try and ascertain how several of the points of the new policy agreed upon between Mexico found their way into print. There has been no denial of their accuracy as published, accompanying those efforts made by the State Department.

WASHINGTON, August 19.

FRANCE AND RUSSIA.

A rumor was circulated yesterday that a cable dispatch had been received by one or both of the diplomatic representatives of France and Russia, stating that the relations between those two powers were about to be disturbed by war. The French legation here regards the rumor as absurd, and has received no official communication, nor has the Russian Minister received any information to that effect. There is nothing whatever in the relations of the governments to lay any foundation for any such a rumor, and there is nothing for the French government, as published here from positively engaged in any such plans of this character, and the Russian legation and foreign ministers here generally.

GEN. SCHENCK.

Left Washington to-day for a brief sojourn at White Sulphur Springs, in Virginia. There are also on the same train Senators Longstreet, Cowan and Grimes.

CABINET MEETING.

Secretary Blandeel returned to Washington this morning, and was to-day in attendance at the Cabinet meeting. All other members, excepting Secretary Welles, were present. It is probable the appointments of Collectors of Customs at Cincinnati and New Orleans were under consideration. For both of those positions there are numerous applications. Wm. B. Storrs, one of the Chiefs of Bureau in the Secretary of the Treasury's office, who was lately rejected by the Senate for Consul at Leeds, has been appointed Chargé of Internal Revenue at Chicago.

RESIGNATION.

The resignation of Colonel Alexander Hays, Assistant Q. M. U. S. A., has been accepted, to take effect from the 15th of March last. Col. Hays is a grandson of Secretary of the American Legation at Berlin.

PROMOTIONS.

Colonel J. A. Brigham, of Massachusetts, who on Saturday cut his throat and nearly himself in eleven places, died to-day.

This morning a Senator, named Henry Hamlin, resigned his position, and immediately shot himself through the heart, dying instantly.

CABINET GOSSIP.

Left Washington to-night for New York. In a few days he will go with a party of friends on a trip to the Rocky Mountains.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The following named gentlemen have been appointed storekeepers under the new Internal Revenue law: R. E. Cochrane, South District Kentucky; Benj. N. Brooks, First District Illinois; John W. Gregory, Twelfth District Pennsylvania; C. C. Bass, Second District Virginia; Joseph Stewart, Twenty-second District Pennsylvania; and J. J. Turner, Twenty-fourth District Pennsylvania. Many of those gentlemen have been appointed under the new law, and recommendations for similar offices are being daily considered. The Secretary of the Treasury has not yet taken any action with regard to the appointment of storekeepers, and the report that he has resigned was based on an interview with the Secretary of the Treasury, in which it is probable definite action will be taken on the nominations now pending, which have already been done in relation to the appointment of Collector of Customs under for Kansas or New Orleans.

A Democratic Gathering at Salem, Ohio.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

SALEM, OHIO, August 18, 1863.

D. L. Lawson, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, spoke here last night to a full house in Town Hall. It was the speaker's first attempt at political speaking since a long time ago. He made no pretensions to eloquence or ability as a public speaker. He dealt principally on the groundwork theory, and the taxation of government bonds, lauded Faulkner and his financial doctrines, and ignored Seymour and Blair, laid Congress responsible for the unsound condition of the bonds, says if elected he will make it a first object to better the condition of the laboring classes, whom he says are oppressed by the Government under the Republican administration, which is responsible for everything; proclaimed himself as the friend of the laboring man, and predicts the success of the National Democratic ticket.

T. S. Woods, of New Lisbon, was expected to be present, but failed to put in an appearance. The larger part of the crowd were Republicans, though there was a delegation of about half a dozen wagons, loaded by a brass band from Washingtonville.

Thrown from Her Carriage and Killed.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

LOWA, O., August 18, 1863.

A fatal accident occurred this morning two miles west of town. While Mr. D. Chapman and wife were on their way to town, a storm overtook them, and as Mrs. Chapman was in the act of raising the umbrella, the horses took fright, throwing her from the buggy and killing her instantly. Mr. Chapman was also thrown out and is believed to be fatally injured.

EUROPE.

BY THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

No Alliance Between France and Switzerland.

The Brazilians Clamorous for Peace.

France and Switzerland.

BERNE, August 18.—It is officially announced that Switzerland will eminently reject any proposal of France looking to an alliance with that power.

South of Slavonia.

LONDON, August 18.—The London Herald, of to-day, thinks that many other Americans than Thaddeus Stevens have really been lost, but the Republican party will long find that they could have spared a better man.

Monetary Appointments.

PARIS, August 18.—The following are among the promotions and honorary appointments decreed by the Emperor on his fete day: The Count de Sartiges, formerly Minister to the United States; M. Charles Etienne Cattle Councillor of State and Private Secretary to the Empress, and M. Augus Wolfson, the eminent physician, were made Senators. M. Rouellian and M. Leon de Jardin, Vice Consul of France at New York, were decorated Chevaliers of the Legion of Honor.

South America.

LONDON, August 18.—English journals publish a letter from Rio Janeiro, in which the writer says the new Cabinet, under Ferreira Itaborahi, is inclined to peace, and a great majority of the people of Brazil are tired of the war with Paraguay, and clamor for peace. The same correspondent asserts that the people of the Argentine Confederation are no less desirous of a termination of hostilities, and states that when the projects of the new treaty of alliance with Brazil was formally submitted to the Argentine Congress, it met with great opposition and was in effect annulled.

French Election.

PARIS, August 18.—The election for member of the Corps Legislatif in the Department of the Jura resulted in the success of M. Grevy, the candidate of the opposition, by a majority of eleven thousand votes over M. Huot, the official candidate of the government.

London Money Market.

LONDON, 3 P. M., August 18.—Consols closed this afternoon at 90 @ 90¼ for money. The bullion in the Bank of England has increased £200,000 during the week.

The breadstuffs market closed generally quiet and steady. Corn is firmer; mixed, 30s 6d; yellow, 31s 6d. Provisions generally unchanged. Pork firmer at 90s. Lard, 63s. Tallow, 47s 6d.

Antwerp Petroleum Market.

ANTWERP, August 18.—The petroleum market is reported firm.

CANADA.

The Fenian Scare—Military Preparations.

TORONTO, August 18.—The Globe this morning professes to have positive information that extensive preparations are being made on the other side for a Fenian raid. It also states that Burroughs have been withdrawn from regular duty, and that the force in garrison here has been reduced to half those now in readiness on a moment's notice.

THE RAILROAD ACCIDENT AT HOUSATONIC.

Four Laborers Killed and Thirteen Others Wounded—Criminal Carelessness.

The telegraph has already announced the terrible wreck and death on the Old Colony and Allegheny Railroad, on Monday morning, by which four laborers were killed and thirteen seriously injured. The Titusville Herald, after referring to the approach of the freight and construction trains, says: Both engines were instantly reversed, but too late to avert the disaster. The engineer and fireman of the freight train jumped off before the collision, and escaped injury. The others, with the laborers, were in the caboose of the impending casualty, and, in accordance with the force by the locomotive, were thrown violently forward, and fearfully gashed and bruised. Fragments of the caboose, and of the two platform cars, were strewn in all directions from the track. The track of the train, stripped off its upper deck and cupola, struck upward with such force as to break the smokestack from the engine like a pipe stem, and then passed entirely over the locomotive and tender. For a moment the air was filled with flying bodies and missiles of every kind. The frightful noise made by the laborers, coupled with the terrific force in every direction, and to the cause, in a great measure, may be attributed the supposed fatal effects of the accident. All the unhurt occupants of the caboose escaped without injury, and as many as are among the debris of the wreck, their cries of agony and of consternation rendered the scene doubly ghastly and distressing.

It was found that only one man had been killed outright, viz.: G. W. Marshall, of Corry, He was a married man, and leaves a wife and two children. Michael Farley was injured in the same manner, and died at the Oil-creek railroad hospital. He was a single man, and had been in the employ of the company but a short time. Patrick Gurney received internal abdominal injuries, from the effects of which he died at Oil Creek Sunday morning. He had been married about one year. Michael Kilcoyne suffered a severe fracture of the frontal bone. He was also shot in the groin, and is otherwise severely injured.

Thirteen others were more or less injured, but not dangerously, so far as known.

The responsibility for the casualty would seem to be directly attributable to the assistant superintendent, Mr. Sinclair, of Meadville, a young man named Irwin. There has been a thorough inquiry into the cause of the accident, but we have not learned that Irwin confesses to having neglected the train as having passed, but assigns no reason for the act. The principal operator was absent, and it is presumed that his assistant, observing that the time had expired for the passage of the two freights, and that the presumption without making any inquiry, and hence this appalling calamity. Five wives and twenty-one children orphaned, on account of the eternal negligence of an individual, who should have from a court of justice a verdict for life in jail for his own years of age; but although this may mitigate public resentment, it will scarcely lessen the pangs of those who have been so terribly and unexpectedly bereaved.

THE SEMICKLEY CAMP MEETING.

Sermon by Rev. J. J. McIlvaine—Prayer Meetings—Christian Experience—Rev. E. B. Snyder on Christian Purity—Rev. S. Bust on the Duty of Persistent, Earnest Prayer.

CAMP GROUNDS, Saturday, Aug. 15.

The services of Friday evening were conducted by Rev. J. J. McIlvaine, of Union Church, Allegheny city, whose sermon was founded upon the words, "For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, though He was rich, for your sakes became poor, that ye through His poverty might be made rich." The sermon was followed by prayer meetings in the altars and tents, and several manifested their desire of partaking of the riches purchased by Christ.

The services at 8½ A. M. were conducted by Rev. R. Hamilton, who ably and effectively urged to the "laying aside the weight and the sins that so easily beset," and running patiently the race set before them, and the services were closed with the narration of Christian experience.

At 10½ A. M. Rev. E. B. Snyder presented the doctrine and duty of Christian purity, Christian perfection and Christ, from the war-cry of terms to its disciples, "Now ye are clean through the words which I have spoken unto you." The sermon was impressive, suggestive and enlightening throughout.

At 2½ P. M. Rev. S. Bust, of Centenary Church, Pittsburgh, used the incident in relation to the Pentecostal women as a text, and preached a powerful sermon on prayer and persistent believing prayer, and at this writing is pressing it upon the attention of an interested congregation.

Personal additions have been made to our ministerial corps and several are now leaving.

Fourteen car loads of Western cattle were received Monday morning at the Bull's Head Yard, corner of Third avenue and One Hundred and Third street, New York, many of which are suffering from the disease among the cattle from Illinois into New Jersey. A strict quarantine was at once established, and thorough disinfection employed by an inspector from the Metropolitan Board of Health.

SECOND EDITION.

4 O'CLOCK, A. M.

THE CATTLE DISEASE.

Sanitary Rules Instituted by the New York Commissioners.

ALBANY, August 18.—The Commissioners convened here yesterday at the request of Governor Fenton, to take such action as they should deem proper to prevent the introduction and spread of contagious cattle disease, have prepared and promulgated rules and regulations governing the introduction, conveyance and distribution of such cattle, and the cars, vessels, &c., in which they may have been transported. These Commissioners, under the laws of this State, are clothed with full power and authority in the matter, and also to appoint assistant commissioners clothed with all the powers conferred on the commissioners or their agents, and announce that they have appointed such assistant commissioners for the various localities infected or exposed to infection. The efforts of this commission is to obtain a complete history of the disease for future use, and this is made a part of the duties of assistant commissioners.

The Commissioners direct that, first, all cars containing cattle will be stopped at the most convenient place on or before entering the State, and if such cars are not in proper sanitary condition, the cattle, even though healthy, are to be disembarked and the cars thoroughly cleaned and disinfected. After the completion of this process, if the cattle continue healthy, they can be reshipped. Such cars, upon reaching such further place of destination, or stopping as may be designated by this Board, will be again inspected, and if found unclean will be put just to such other stoppage, cleaning and disinfecting as may be necessary.

Secondly, If at any point on the line of the said railroad or railroads said Assistant Commissioner shall learn by inspection or information of the existence of the disease, they shall first be stopped at some convenient place where they have reason to believe no infection exists, such cars thoroughly cleaned and disinfected, and the cattle, if in which they have been exposed to disease are to be kept distinct, such cattle and all such as have been exposed to the infection may be immediately slaughtered in an enclosure remote from all cattle by neutral ground of at least 1,000 feet. All cattle yards or places in which diseased cattle or cattle exposed to disease may have been must be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected before being again used for the herding other cattle. If in the judgment of the Assistant Commissioner and the executive such yards or receiving places for cattle are not of sufficient capacity to be properly cleansed and disinfected, they will be closed, &c., as well as may be and such and other similar places to be substituted therefor.

Thirdly, All cattle being sent to market on ordering the trade or being carried on vessels in the State, or on the public highway, will be subjected to the same inspection, and sanitary restrictions as above for those sent on cars.

Fourthly, Instructions were given relative to the classification of the cars and persons of parties who have charge of diseased cattle.

POLITICAL.

ATLANTA, August 18.—A Republican mass meeting was held in this city to-day, favoring the nomination of Grant and Colfax. A procession was formed in front of the Postoffice building, composed of 150 negroes and 300 white men. Near the head of the procession was a large wagon occupied by negroes, with flags and transparencies. The wagon contained thirty-seven ladies, each dressed in white and wearing tricolored sashes, representing the several States of the Union, each dressed in white and wearing tricolored sashes, representing the several States of the Union, each dressed in white and wearing tricolored sashes, representing the several States of the Union, with flags and transparencies. The procession with flags and transparencies. The procession moved through the principal streets and terminated in Hall Square, where they were addressed by Ex-Governor Joseph Brown, Jas. Johnson and others.

A heavy rain fell during the afternoon, and the meeting dispersed at four o'clock. About 1,500 colored and 500 white men were present, some of the latter were from Kentucky. Republican processions in several communities are reported as the Place at large Means, Ackerman and Platt.

The Republicans in the Legislature have agreed in caucus to present a bill to elect electors by the General Assembly.

The Constitutional Union men claim that the Independents and Democratic Railroad Co. has united without rail, with Mr. Brown, a preacher of that county, who had been injured by a collision on the road so as to disable him from preaching, the company agreeing to pay him one hundred dollars a year during his life, and the road to his wife after his death, should the latter live.

CITY MATTERS.

Tanner Grant Clubs.

Send in your orders for Caps, Capes and Torches for the campaign. Also, for campaign goods, apply at Postoffice.

PERSONAL.—Sheriff Casey has sent the city for a short visit to Long Branch.

NOTHING DOING.—Everything was perfectly quiet in the boroughs on the South side yesterday.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—Edward Nast has been awarded the contract for removing dead carcasses and hides of animals from the Allegheny city for the year.

SUDDEN DEATH, CELEBRATION.—The announcement of the Homestead Union National Bank was received here on Monday, and a splendid time indulged in.

PENNSYLVANIA CHARACTER.—James Shaw, one of the Pennsylvania Regiments, "I will vote any man for President who will pledge himself to give us a good square fight and no favors." Shaw is a native of Ireland, and has been in the country of twenty-two years. He was a Democrat, but has since changed his politics.

NEW COLLARS IN TRAINING.—A dispatch was received here last night, announcing that Hyer and Sam Cooper, near Baltimore, for his coming fight for the light weight championship with Billy Edwards, stating that he has succeeded in reducing the latter to the required weight, and that he will weigh Saturday next. Edwards has been backed heavily by Baltimore men, and a quiet place on the Potomac selected for the ring.

DR. ABORN'S MEDICAL INSTITUTE.—Dr. E. S. Aborn, Principal of the Pittsburgh Medical and Surgical Institute, publishes an important card on the subject of Chronic Catarrh in the advertising columns of this paper. The Doctor's success in curing invalids on the Monongahela. Coming as he did to Pittsburgh unheralded and without any great reputation already established, we cordially commend the practice of his profession, and to a very brief time secured a very large patronage. Many of the most prominent citizens of this city and a well known Professor in one of the Eastern Medical Colleges, which is the first ascertained of Dr. Aborn's remarkable success. Increased, until he is compelled to employ the services of other medical physicians. The great success of the Doctor's specialties must be the result of unusual skill of great character to warn for him the confidence which he has so justly acquired, prepared to all sufferers care that must come under his care. With these qualifications which he possesses in the highest degree, we have no doubt of his success in the future of the city.

Great Walking Match—One Hundred Hours Without Rest or Sleep.

James Mackey, a pedestrian of California and Australia, and Ike Keefer, the noted pedestrian of Birmingham, commenced their great match of walking one hundred consecutive hours without rest or sleep, on the Lawrenceville track, on the premises attached to the Cottage Saloon, on Fifth street, at seven o'clock last night. At an early hour this morning both men were quite fatigued. If the parties accomplish the feat of walking one hundred hours, they will have performed a distance of 400 miles. Mackey is also a noted pedestrian, and was the opponent of John Steadman, in the match of 1861, which was for walking one thousand miles in one thousand consecutive hours. In that match Mackey walked six hundred and thirty miles, Keefer, the other pedestrian, walked four hundred, attempted the same feat—walking one hundred consecutive hours without rest or sleep—and was compelled to abandon the attempt from exhaustion after walking seventy-three hours.

Escape and Recapture.

On Monday afternoon one of the prisoners confined in the Western Penitentiary, in Allegheny, made an escape from that institution. He was recognized before he had escaped a great distance. It appears that the prisoner named and another prisoner were engaged during the afternoon in removing manufactured articles from the shop in which they were to the store room in the front part of the building. There is but one door, the one that opens to the street through this the prisoners pass to the manufactured goods to the store room. The two prisoners mentioned had taken some pieces of furniture to the front door, and while in the front part of the building, and were accompanied by the guard, they made a rush for the street, and in the confusion which followed succeeded in escaping. Mr. Lee, who was in charge of the shop, ran after the prisoners, and was followed by Mr. Jones, the guard. The latter fired his gun at the fugitives, but without effect. Mr. Lee succeeded in capturing one of the prisoners, who was taken back to the Penitentiary, and the second man is now in custody. The other prisoner who was with him made his escape although he was pursued, but quickly went to a quarry in the ground. The prisoner then attempted to escape by the Manchester road, but was captured by Mr. Lee, who had followed him. The prisoner then attempted to escape by the Manchester road, but was captured and re-instituted an escape, but seeing the way that he passed the door he determined to make a break for liberty and an attempt at it, with the result stated.

THE CITY PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

Meeting of the Return Judges.

THE OFFICIAL VOTE.

Speeches of Jared M. Brush, R. J. McGowan and A. J. Cochran.

The Judges of the late primary elections, to nominate candidates for Mayor, Controller and Treasurer, met in the Common Council Chamber, on Tuesday morning, at ten o'clock, and organized by appointing David Holmes, Esq., Chairman, and Messrs. Wm. H. Denniston, Thomas W. Davis, Wm. A. Janney and John T. Brown, clerks.

The returns of the election held in the several wards were then called for, when all were handed in. The clerks then made the official record, as follows:

The Judges then declared that Messrs. Brush, McGowan and Cochran, having received a majority of all the votes cast for the respective offices, were duly elected for the ensuing year.

On motion, Messrs. E. P. Jones, J. N. Devlin, H. Hays, J. Woolsenger and F. H. McGee were appointed a Committee to wait upon the successful candidates, inform them of their nomination, and conduct them to the chamber.

The Committee, after a brief absence, appeared with the candidates, when Mr. Brush was introduced by Mr. McGowan, and addressed the assemblage as follows:

MR. BRUSH'S SPEECH.

Mr. Brush, being called upon for a speech, responded as follows:

Mr. President and Members of the Convention—Permit me to return to each of you individually my sincere thanks for the honor you have conferred upon me. I feel deeply grateful to you, for the undeserved but overwhelming compliment of my nomination by the Democracy of the second city of the great Keystone State, on the second Tuesday of October next, will ratify the action of this Convention, although I distrust my ability to make an efficient Mayor, I promise you that to the best I can to merit the confidence you have reposed in me. I feel that I have not performed speech was replied with applause, and the Committee then formally introduced forward to congratulate him on his success.

Mr. Cochran was not called upon, and said:

Mr. President—I feel highly honored by the partiality shown me by my fellow Republicans, in nominating me for the office of Controller of this county, and should I be elected, I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability in a faithful and satisfactory manner. Applause.

THE CITY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

On motion, the Chairman was authorized to appoint a City Executive Committee to serve for the ensuing three years, and announce the same through the Republican papers.

RESOLUTIONS.

E. P. Jones, Esq., moved the appointment of Messrs. Hays Devlin, Janney and Magee, as a committee to draft resolutions indorsing the ticket.

Mr. David Holmes was appointed Chairman of Mr. Jones, and making him chairman, which was agreed to.

Mr. Jones—That we cordially extend to the city and county Republican ticket, and especially to our candidate for Mayor, our support, and pledge to them the whole vote of the Republican party.

Resolved, That to Jared M. Brush, Robert J. McGowan and A. J. Cochran, the candidates for Mayor, Controller and Treasurer, we tender the assurance of our confidence in their ability and integrity, and will do all in our power to give entire success to the whole ticket.

Resolved, That with General U. S. Grant and Governor Curtin at the head of the ticket, and with such gentlemen as Judge Woodward and Governor Bigler on the electoral ticket, we feel confident of success in the November election.

Resolved, That the Republicans of the Twenty-third District, in Conference assembled, hereby nominate Hon. James S. Negley, of Pittsburgh, as their candidate for Congress, and pledge to him their hearty support.

Resolved, That the Republicans of the Twenty-third Congressional

The Daily Commercial

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1868.

The Commercial is the largest daily paper in the city, and gives daily, one fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that runs the telegraph through, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

In proof of the estimate placed on the market reports of the Commercial, we will state that they are regularly copied by the New York Economist, Shipping List, Iron Age, and other papers of the character in that and other cities, and that leading British commercial papers and reviewers regularly receive them with credit. Those in search of the latest news, hardly an Iron Factory, Oil Refinery, or leading manufactory of any kind that is not a subscriber to the Commercial, proves conclusively, because its reports are the only full and reliable guide of the Pittsburgh markets.

THE Democratic Conference of the Twenty-third Congressional District met at Freeport yesterday, and nominated Gen. A. Wilkinson, Esq., a prominent lawyer of Butler county, for Congress.

THE Republican Congressional Conference of the Twenty-third District, in session at Freeport, have not succeeded in making a nomination at 9:30 P. M. yesterday, the time of the latest intelligence from there.

THE New York Commercial says it is whispered in private circles "that one of the great leaders of the Democracy in this city, the first many years of the young Democracy of New York—a gentleman eminent in his profession and brilliant in social circles, will shortly declare against Seymour and Blair, and in favor of Grant and Colfax."

THE Republican meeting in the village of Washington Monday evening was very large and enthusiastic, the almighty dollar's opening of the canvass in the quarter. The speakers were Hon. E. Cunningham, Esq., of Pittsburgh; Capt. Duncan, the nominee for Congress, and the Hon. Geo. T. Lawrence, whose speeches—which were eloquent and effective—will be found reported in this paper. Push on the column.

GEN. FORNEY is trying Wade Hampton over once as a Democratic ballot and as a gambler of the true fashion. On the theory he is going it quite characteristic and he has Fort Pillow style to back it. Can't the Old Cavalier himself be here to "giving the counter" in the next corner, and to this he has added something further concerning the programme, as follows:

> After Seymour and Blair are given full swing for—

IT is reported from Washington that the Southern Republican members are urging for a Saturday meeting of Congress, to insure them protection from the Southern mixed rebels. That the situation of Southern Carolina is a hard one we do not question, nevertheless they must bear it all the same as control is anything could be put by a Democratic meeting. It is the fact that under the Reverse Bill passed during the last hours of the session without quorum or reading, it would seem, Southern White Conservatives are now thousands of appointments in every many instances turning out Republicans—of carpetbaggers of the worst sort, the selection of some of whom are to be accounted for on no other ground than that they will steal any amount of money required to elect Seymour and Blair.

THE last half or many Grover Clubs have been organized in Pennsylvania as should be in working order to-day. To the Democratic who reads this we have just this to say: If in your own ward, district or neighborhood a Club has not been formed, (Grant Club we do not mean without doing anything to make up the list now. If one has been formed take the next step, form the next, and so on, till you have made it a real man-living Club ready for Republican votes and to the polls in October. The time is not too long, nor is it too short, if the work is begun at once. The Stars months carried in October. That from the November battle will be more than half won.

HORATIO SEYMOUR AS AN ORATOR AND AS A MAN.

IT is impossible for the supporters of Seymour to produce a speech or letter of any kind, containing a single earnest word in favor of putting the Rebellion down by fighting the war through to the end. On the contrary, he at the outset supported the theory of permitting the Rebellion to wear itself out, or to get a foothold. His electorate and the Confederacy was a better Constitution than the Federal, and added, "why not make the amendment?" which, why not? Then the origin of our failure and the substitution of traitors? Then the close of the struggle, in favor the side of the South, and in 1865 was compromise among those who had conducted the war "without" and defended peace, even at the cost of the Union. He instigated the mob at a Democratic meeting in favor of Lee, who was then invading Pennsylvania. He created and promoted riots, which resulted in failure of the draft, and he engaged and presided at meetings in favor of the Rebellion and Rebels now engaged in the field.

Chief or Three R's?

THE New York Herald says the Philadelphia Ledger records with meaningful silence, sentiments

> The Republicans are running the canvass with great vigor, without saying much what we are to do. The Democratic Committee are using strenuous efforts to get up meetings in all the great towns on the Hudson river, and all along the line of the Central railroad to Buffalo. But such demonstrations are intended not alone to make an impression on the Republicans, but to encourage the Democrats themselves, and to create a sort of contagious excitement which will spread from one locality to another.

Pennsylvania Republicans will cease to be complacent for want of concentration of forces in a single district. It was the rule in entering the rebellion, but to act on it from this time forth, and Pennsylvania will be carried for Grant, Peace and Honesty at election day comes.

THE State Rights Democratic Convention met in Wilmington Wednesday last, when William Watson, of that county, was chosen for the fourth time President of the league. Among the Vice Presidents is the R. R. Wardens, of Pittsburgh, R. D. Wade, of Allegheny, is a member of the Advisory Committee, and Mr. Wardens was chosen one of the delegates to the National Convention.

THE Chicago papers are busy with a blazing system, in which a few, nine years of age, are taken away, a greater per cent for south, and confined with others who are similarly treated. After long confinement of the boy, they are inclined to think the story a ruse, and really is loathe as if the force of the law was a little imaginative manner was concerned and wholly groundless.

WHEN Fremont and Kossuth, the fatherly-minded Democratic party, will commence a series of meetings on the 1st of September next, beginning at New Haven and then making a tour of the States, they will visit Pittsburgh some time in November, and give our

What an Eminent South Carolinian Says.

Chief Justice B. F. Person, of South Carolina, himself a conservative, has addressed a lengthy letter to the conservatives of that State, in which he sets forth the merits of the reconstruction, and says the only safety is in the election of Grant and Colfax. The letter is a powerful one, full of arguments. He says "God forbid a war of races," and insists the question of reconstructing the freedmen by saying "the idea of four millions of people, not slaves, existing in our midst, without some political right was out of the question. Such a condition of things could not exist. It is impossible. It must and will cease. It is a question of existence—of self-preservation." He further says, "when the Democratic party, the Conservative party, representing, as it does, the property and intelligence of the State, will not take the guidance of affairs, and all will be well."

The Laborers in Russia.

The emancipation of the Russian serfs, according to a writer in the New York Tribune, did not at first produce good effects, and even now the country is suffering from the illness of those recently emancipated. The fact, however, appears to be with the peasants themselves. Their inordinate love of liberty and their release from servitude, caused them to give vent to their indulgences, the consequences of which are painful to witness in many parts of the empire. The great want amongst the peasant appears to be education. In this they are sadly deficient, and as they are now their own masters, they indulge in intemperance whenever they have the opportunity. The writer, after a long sketch of the manner they have been on the empire, says a greater luminary seems to be almost inevitable, and what now is will be soon past, as the peasants have had no choice.

Glad to Hear It!

Adjudications of Claims for Losses by Rebel Raids.

The Commission appointed to adjudicate claims for losses sustained by rebel raids on the Southern border of Pennsylvania, is to-day, in session at Chambersburg. The commission is composed of Judge Graham, of Pittsburgh; Judge Hall, of Bedford, and Judge Sharpe, of Franklin county. The claims are numerous, and will be referred to the commission by the Governor.

Democratic Democracy.

The old Guard is the only sound Democratic magazine in the South. What is republicanism, or the political situation, for that matter, worth. How is what it declares will be the result if by any regular power "The united States of the Democratic party to power will restore the Constitution and the Union. With the restoration of the Constitution and the Union will return also the rights, the equality, and sovereignty of the States. Then the claims of the negro in each State will be fixed and confirmed by the State itself. All that has been done will be passed upon by the Legislatures of the several States, in and will not all the work be undone by the same authority that did it? Will not the Legislatures of the States have full power to reject the fourteenth amendment, and every other amendment that they please to reject? Will not the Legislatures of the States, in and will not all the work be undone by the same authority that did it? Will not the Legislatures of the States have full power to reject the fourteenth amendment, and every other amendment that they please to reject?

Remarks of Mr. Wm. M. Lawson.

MR. M. LAWSON on taking the chair said he felt no doubt when they had gathered and the sentiments with which they assembled fully inspired and warmed the the audience comprehended all the objects of the meeting. He could not but be sensible for him to express himself in other terms than those in which they were brought them. He could not therefore but say that he was no office in which they were all interested—known as that of District Attorney of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania. The incumbent of that office received his appointment under the signed manual of a President of the United States, whose views and sentiments had been ascertained by the people who met at the ballot box, and who, by their votes, had declared their wishes and desires as to the future policy of the Government. Mr. Lawson received the appointment of District Attorney from the hands of Andrew Johnson, who was elected by the people as a Democratic Vice President. He (Mr. Lawson) received the appointment

PERSONAL.

—W. Lloyd Garrison, in a letter to the London Anti-Slavery Society, referring to the position of politics in America, the two great issues upon which the Democratic party depend for success are now and future of the negro. Even in the language of Seward, in Wilson's "Pyramids Lost," they continually say:

"Your country is the cause of contempt to the civilized nations. The cause of suffering the cost of depression, and the permanent wealth of the nation is the cause of the negro. Congress can not, I am going to be impartial. I have now two propositions before you, one having been acted on by the people of one-fourth—one of which is for the acts of our own Congress, and the other acts of the Federal Army (Gen. Grant), who was with Mr. Lincoln
